DEDICATION

To our beloved Mother General, Mother Mary Carmelita, to our own Mother Mary Sophia, Provincial of the Chicago Province, and to all the Sisters of Mercy, we, the Class of 1930, affectionately dedicate this volume of the Mercian.

FOREWORD

In this book we, the class of 1930, have made a sincere effort to put forth the duties, pleasures, and ideals of the Mercy girl. Her duties and pleasures will be obvious, and as to her ideals, we believe that whatever they may be, that they may be expressed in some form of our Lady's lovely character. Our purpose has been attained if, not knowing the Mercy girl, you now know her, or if, knowing her, you love her more.

OUR THEME

It is through the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary that woman rules the world, and it is on her infinite womanliness that we wish to dwell in this book. Thus, in using Mary, our Mother, for our theme, we make this memory book a provisional prayer, a prayer to Mary that this annual of Mercy High School may recall to us the treasures of her life and her virtues, and remind us to make her our model and helper in every need.

REVEREND DENIS HAYES
Revered Chaplain of Mercy High School, 1925-1930

*As grace is given through earnest prayer, he came
To minister with gentle kindly hand,
Our father, priest of God, and on our lives
His impress left. The while we yearning stand,
And tearful, miss his placid, holy smile,
We hear his whisper, "Consummatum est."
Serene he passes to supernal joy—
Priest for eternity—amid the blest.*

MAIN ENTRANCE

Our school! It is the scene of our youthful joys and sorrows, of our triumphs and failures; it is the stage where we have acted the happiest and most cherished part of our lives. Each student of us has been an actor in this beloved playhouse. Some of us have played the role of success, others of us have been less fortunate.

Among us there have been songbirds, promising actresses and musicians, athletes, and lithe, graceful dancers. With each of us success means a different thing—accomplishment in a certain art, science, or craft, or, perhaps, the making of many true friends. We alone know whether we have been successful!

ADMINISTRATION

The passing years, though few, add new lustre to the long line of successes attached to our school. Honors in all departments competing for recognition have stamped them with the seal of splendid achievement, and words of commendation from business houses and from institutions of higher learning as well as from the officers of the North Central Association and University of Illinois have brought full measure of gratification to teachers and pupils.

Mercy's music department has the highest possible recognition for any music school in Chicago, both instrumental and vocal. This department is accredited by the North Central Association as well as by the Chicago Board of Education and all universities.

The domestic science, art, and sewing departments are of highly accepted worth and the commercial students from Mercy have received such commendation as to render necessary the opening of another room in that department.

In music, art, athletics, expression, as well as in the regular academic subjects, societies and little clubs aid greatly in promoting class spirit and love for study. The Glee club, orchestra and band, the last new this year, have deserved full measure of praise. Various branches of the Sodality have done much as has the Perpetual Adoration to foster greater piety.

No small credit is due to the wonderful support given the school by the Mothers' Auxiliary, which during this year and the preceding years, has spared neither time nor energy in helping the Sisters.

From the Mercy Federation, the school has received encouraging and greatly appreciated support as each year adds a large number of graduates to its splendid membership.

Again and ever the faculty thanks our Lord and our Blessed Lady of Mercy for its signal successes for which it pleads continuance.

SENIOR

F.B.

TO OUR SENIORS

Once more we read the almost completed page, and with gladness not unmixed with sorrow, we see another young army go forth to life's field ready for action. Equipped, yes—dear girls, you are equipped with all that four years of loving care, fervent prayer, and kindly admonition can give you. It seems but yesterday you came to us, trusting, hoping, eager. And now we take your hands lovingly and you go forth—eager—hoping—trusting. May the new life shelter you as did your Alma Mater, may it be kind and true to you as Mercy has tried to be, and may time deepen in your hearts the impressions of truth, and faith and charity so often exemplified in your high school career. You go forth but you will feel that always Mercy loves you, Mercy watches eagerly for your return, Mercy prays that God may bless and guide and guard you. Come to us always, dear-girls of '30, we wait for you.

HELEN ALLMAN St. Bride
Mercian staff; Press club; Art club.
If rare things are precious, then we must place a high value on this twin's occasional word.

MARY ALLMAN St. Bride
Mary is an exemplification of the fact that every girl is a volume if you know how to read her. She is the other sweet twin. It's hard to tell which.

GENEVIEVE BARRY St. Anselm
Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; Art club secretary; D. S. C.; Glee club.
Gen keeps her friends in a state of mind which they find the full equivalent of a ten dollar entertainment. Thus she saves them many dollars and gives worth while results.

ELEANOR BEAUREGARD St. Margaret
Honor student; Le Cercle Francais; Mercian staff; Press club; Booster club; D. S. C.; Glee club; president, Outdoor club.
Eleanor has acquired a masterful leadership and an ability in meeting emergencies. Whenever there is necessity for it, she volunteers her partisan ardor and makes things go.

MARY BELL St. Leo
Honor student; Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; president, Art club.
Character in every word and deed. Mary has principles scarcely to be expected in one of her years. And one of her finest principles is finding not only the content, but genuine fun, in whatever is at hand.

CECILIA BENNETT St. Mary
Le Cercle Francais.
Cecilia believes that wherever there is a human being there is an opportunity for kindness. As a confidante she offers fidelity and sympathy.

CECILIA BINGENHEIMER St. James
El Circulo Espanol; Glee club.
Cecilia views life through an exquisite pink haze and finds only the good that is there. She is a musical maid.

MARIE BIRMINGHAM St. Gabriel
El Circulo Espanol.
Marie has an evasive "come hither" charm which arouses pleasing emotions and piques the fancy. She possesses a gracious nobleness of manner and aspect.

HELEN BLANDFORD

St. Anne

Honor student; Class Secretary; Editor-in-chief of Mercy-Hi Rays '29; Chairman of Press club; Classica Societas; Mercian staff; Outdoor club.

Hamlet's "He was a man, take him for all in all, I shall not look upon his like again," drafted into feminine form would easily fit Helen—a convincing personification of the ideals of Mercy. She is beloved, loving and lovely.

TERESA BOHAN

St. Columbanus

Honor student; Classica Societas; Press club.

Teresa is a breezy, laughing Irish lass who performs her duty faithfully with great sense and prudence.

LAURAYNE BOHRER

Holy Cross

El Circulo Espanol.

Sweet and gracious, with a bit of laughter ever ready to crop up is this dear girl.

MARY BOWDEN

St. Francis de Paula

Mary will be an asset to any office as she is both an accurate and able typist. Business will eagerly claim her for its own and she will uplift it.

KATHLEEN BOWEN

St. Gabriel

El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.

Kathleen's fondness for syncopation is usually evident but it means much.

MARY BRADY

St. Margaret

Mary is quiet, but the world knows little of some of its greatest men. She has no need for fascinating words, her deeds are sufficient.

FLORENCE BURNS

St. Leo

Class treasurer; art editor, Mercian staff; Press club; El Circulo Espanol; Art club; Sewing club.

Florence is admired for more than her beauty. She has won distinction for her wonderful art work and for her popular leadership.

MARY BURNS

St. Leo

Mercian staff; Press club; El Circulo Espanol; vice-president, Art club; Sewing club; Glee club.

Mary can put a lot of spirituality into everyday life. There is a nobility about her which causes her most ordinary actions to seem fine and lofty. The Burns girls are an asset to Mercy.

1930

RAPHAEL BURNS

St. Claire

El Circulo Espanol.

The song writers must have been thinking of Ray when they wrote, "Ain't She Sweet?"

EVELYN BUSINGER

St. Gabriel

Evelyn's true cheerfulness is not an effortless thing. It has risen triumphant over numberless causes for gloom.

ELIZABETH BUTLER

St. Anne

Honor student; Classica Societas.

Elizabeth has the one commodity for which there is always a market—good-will. Hers is a warm, human aspect.

LUCILLE CALLAGHAN

Sacred Heart

El Circulo Espanol; Sewing club.

"Lou" tells a funny story, laughs, and is happy. She is a "good fellow."

VELMA CAREY

St. Francis de Paula

Mercy-Hi Rays staff; Mercian staff; Press club; Glee club.

Velma, who types with the most nimble fingers, is as tiny, petite, and chic as any little lady of Versailles.

LORETTA CARNEY

Holy Rosary

Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; Glee club.

Loretta, armed with intellectual keenness and applied action, has set to master the world. Her years on the Hi Rays and Mercian staffs have been stepping stones to her future success.

WINIFREE CARRIG

St. Justin

"Wyn" is bubbling over with surprises. They come as imitations of famous (or nearly so) people. Each of her gestures may be called a play because it is so full of dramatic ability.

ANNE CASSON

St. Anne

One can always be sure of what jolly, saucy "Orphan Annie" is going to do—it's always the unexpected.

IRENE CAVANAUGH St. Patrick,
Indiana Harbor, Mich.

Sewing club; Glee club.

*It is wondered if Irene is weaving dreams of becoming an opera star.
Charm of voice and manner, and sweet simplicity are hers.*

MARY RITA CAVANAUGH Lindblom
Euclidean club.

Rita thinks for herself, makes her own decisions, and, difficult or not, carries them to attainment. She loves to visit—.

MADELINE CLEMENS St. Patrick
Classica Societas.

*Though her manner never reveals it,
Madeline has a mental relish and,
intellectual taste, which are satisfied only by books and books.*

MARIE COGAN Our Lady of Peace
Classica Societas.

Little Marie teaches one that charity and mercy and friendliness are a little higher than the skies.

MYRTLE CONBOY St. Patrick

Myrtle's highly nervous organization makes her fond of thrills and tensions. She takes a while to know, but the time is not regretted.

KATHLEEN COSGROVE Holy Rosary

When it comes to tennis trophies "Cos" was born with a whole set of silver spoons in her mouth, she has won so many.

BEATRICE CROWLEY St. Anne
El Circulo Espanol; Glee club.

Bee, spirited, frank, and sturdy, keeps to her own ideas and lets others do as they please.

RITA CUNNEEN St. Basil
Ciscora delegate.

*Candidly and indifferently Rita gets what good she can out of life.
She has the charm of naturalness.*

Thirty-nine

1930

FRANCES CUNNINGHAM St. Theodore
Classica Societas.
Frances has the serene complacency and sweet composure of the pensive soul.

GERTRUDE DEADY St. Sabina
Press club.
Gert has a vocabulary that seems unbounded. We have often wondered as she reads a theme or gives floor talks whether or not she has swallowed Mr. Webster (by mistake of course). Gert's fame or rather most of it lies in the fact that she is a class entertainer.

ANNA DICKMAN St. Catherine of Genoa
Classica Societas.
Anna's infectious laugh rings out during the most solemn moments of a class. It waits for neither time nor tide.

MARION DIMOND Holy Cross
Class president; honor student; Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; president, El Circulo Espanol; Booster club; Press club; Glee club.
"Some can do if others say. Some can say if others do." Since Marion can both do and say, the reins of the school have been placed in her capable hands. She has a whimsical personality and a poise in any emergency.

DOROTHY DISSETTE St. Anne
A jolly, tender bit of sentiment is Dorothy with a big generous heart and with willing hands.

ALICE DIXON Our Lady of Solace
Glee club; Press club; Library staff; Classica Societas.
Alice, the fair-minded, is a poised speaker, with a charming voice and pleasing accent. She has a mind that suits her fair and outward character.

GRACE DOERR Holy Angels, Gary, Ind.
Grace may be as quiet as the proverbial mouse of Christmas eve, but unlike the mouse, her fun and laughter sometimes creep out with startling surprise.

BLANCHE DONNELLY St. Bernard
D. S. C.; Glee club.
Blanche's greatest possessions are a kind heart and a sense of humor. She can meet a difficult situation with light words.

*I'm star gazing
Fish-*

Love D.

HELEN DOOLEY St. Columbanus

Honor student; Press club; Classica Societas; Booster club; Glee club.

Helen is a sincere, self-possessed girl whose steadfast eye betokens a spirit that carries her with a steady course through life.

HELEN DOWNEY St. Anselm

Mercian staff; Press club; El Circulo Espanol; Sewing club, president; Glee club.

Helen is a vital, true-blue girl. When things are fine, she is jolly, when they are not, she is sympathetic. She is ever-energetic.

HELEN DOYLE St. Theodore

Honor student.

There is no rise or fall in Helen's emotion. When she does change there is no demonstration of it. She is always calm and refinedly composed.

ANN DUNNE St. Brendan

Honor student; Mercian staff; Mercy-Hi Rays staff; Press club; El Circulo Espanol; Library staff.

Ann is habitually occupied. Her industry and perseverance have been rewarded by many honors. She is a wonderful girl.

MARIE DUNWORTH St. Leo

Classica Societas.

Everything in its place with Marie, work in school, and fun outside. A real Mercyite.

LENORE DURACK St. Dorothy

Lenore enjoys a quiet conscience. She is never turbulent and detests confusion and disorder.

ANN DURKIN Our Lady of Peace

Le Cercle Francais; Sewing club.

There is something like the sun's rays about Ann, one feels warmed and comforted when she is near.

FLORENCE DURKIN St. Sabina

Honor student; Mercy-Hi Rays staff; Mercian staff; Press club; Glee club.

Flossie's baby talk and rolling eyes can disperse gloom instantly. She makes her comrades feel the world's a sweeter place because she is in it. And it is.

Forty-one

THE MERCIAN

ANNE ELLEDGE

St. Leo

Classica Societas.

Although her manner might lead one to think her grown-up (as Anne believes she is) at heart she is really just bonny, bubbling "Blossom."

EVELYN ERCOLINE

Avalon Park

Glee club; Art club; Mercian staff.

Dark eyed Evelyn's whole life is a season of calm weather with surprising little gusts of gayety.

MARGARET EWING

St. Dorothy

El Circulo Espanol.

Margaret is a lithe, high-strung girl with a lively unquenchable interest in the cares and excitement of school life.

MARGARET FARRELL

St. Dorothy

Light hearted and impetuous Margaret has the most enviable trait of optimism. Nothing ever worries her.

MARIE FAUBEL

St. Leo

Sewing club; Ciscora delegate.

Even if there be sorrow, life is full of compensations and Marie is one of them. Often just her sweet presence is one's necessity.

AGNES FITZGERALD

St. Anthony

El Circulo Espanol.

Agnes seems to take life as an affair of the intellect, for demurely and with a smile she does her school work.

HELEN FITZGERALD

De Kalb High, De Kalb, Illinois

Classica Societas.

Mercy was glad to welcome Helen this year and all found her a stranger but a day.

KATHERINE FLOOD

St. Ambrose

Ciscora delegate; Classica Societas; Sewing club.

All Katherine's real and intense interests are concentrated on benefiting mankind, practically and with excellent wisdom.

EILEEN FORD St. Anne
Eileen is outwardly quiet, but inwardly she is chock full of vehement feeling and restless energy as well as generous charity.

RITA FORD St. Brendan
Although Rita appears to be weighed down by numerous cares, the cares go on their way, and Rita lives sweetly on just the same.

JANET FORMAN St. Thomas Apostle
Le Cercle Francais; Glee club.
There is a moral grandeur about Janet, a purity and integrity that mingles well with her hidden mischievous spirit.

RUTH FORREST St. Leo
Basketball team.
Spirited, sturdy Ruth is one of the most wholesome and natural girls of the day. One always feels contented and comfortable in her presence.

CAROLYN FRAHER St. Rita
Le Cercle Francais; D. S. C.; Glee club.
For Carolyn it is the vicissitudes of life that give zest to living. Her cheerfulness and broad-mindedness enable her to get on well with people.

MARIAN FRITSCH All Saints
Ciscora delegate; Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Mercian staff; Press club; El Circulo Espanol; Glee club.
Efficient, obliging, clever, droll, Marian is all of these. She exemplifies many desirable qualities of a student.

MABLE GALLAGHER St. Columbanus
El Circulo Espanol; Sewing club.
Mable in her easy-going, good-natured, imperturbable way, joins in anything afoot.

MARGARET GALLAGHER
St. Catherine of Genoa
Mercian staff; president, Glee club; Press club; Classica Societas.
"Peg" has distinctive and persistent traits which make all her interests vital and worth while. She loves light and color and is strong in dramatics.

Forty-three

MARGUERITE GALLAGHER St. Joachim
Honor student; Mercian staff; Mercy-
Hi Rays '29; Press club; Classica
Societas.

*Marguerite never gets out of reach of good books and good thoughts.
"Good sense and common sense
Have no room for nonsense."*

CATHERINE GANEY St. Sabina
Press club; Mercian staff; D. S. C.;
Glee club.

Catherine is characterized by a humorous disposition. "A fellow feeling makes one wondrous kind."

RUTH GARTLAND St. Justin Martyr
El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.; orchestra.

Ruth has the Wanderlust. When this musical girl is not playing the "fiddle," she is roaming the halls but is always willing to help.

NORMA GEIGER St. Rita
Honor student; Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; captain, basketball team; Outdoor club.

Captain Norm is a combination of ability, determination, ambition and brains. Add this to an affectionate nature, and her popularity and success as a student and athlete are accounted for.

ELIZABETH GERRARD Holy Cross
Ciscora delegate; D. S. C.

Betty's humor is a mixture of love and wit which shows misfortune the door.

MARION GLYNN Our Lady of Solace
Honor student; Classica Societas; D.
S. C.; Glee club.

Marion is tall, dark, and debonair. She is like a sweet "story-book" lady in an atmosphere of mystery.

FRANCES GOON Haven
Honor student; Ciscora delegate; El Circulo Espanol.

Frances has entered and kept to the road that leads to the attainment of things lofty and noble. A lovable, lovely little lady.

MABELLE GRADY St. Joachim
Ciscora delegate; El Circulo Espanol;
Glee club; Music Certificate.

Music is the richest source of Mabel's happiness; and her music is the pleasure of others.

MARY GRANT St. Columbanus
 El Circulo Espanol.
Some after honor hunt, some after riches, but Mary seeks friends. She is blessed with a real, unvarnished humanness.

VIRGINIA GRUNER St. Xavier
 Honor student; Ciscora delegate; Press club; Sewing club; Glee club.
Virginia is the golden mean between action and apathy. She never hurries, but works effectively with an almost inactive manner.

ELEANOR GUTRICH St. Theodore
 El Circulo Espanol; Glee club.
Eleanor talks as lightly as the skimming of swallows, flying from one subject to another. She is a gay person full of pleasant thoughts.

VIRGINIA HAAB St. Lawrence
In her school work Virginia shows taste and skill. She gets tangible results because she considers it amicable labor.

ALICE HALLIGAN St. Killian
 Sewing club; D. S. C.; Glee club.
Beauty and common sense, which so rarely go together, are becomingly combined in Alice.

MARY HANEY St. Gabriel
 El Circulo Espanol; president, D.S.C.
Being kept quiet for more than two seconds is hard on Mary. She always has something up her sleeve, often goodies from the cooking room.

MILDRED HANIFAN St. Leo
 Honor student; El Circulo Espanol.
Mildred, in demureness a rival of the violet, has, like it, a healthy and unobtrusive affection for her fellow creatures.

ELIZABETH HANLON St. Francis de Paula
A veritable lover of the classroom is Elizabeth. She can hardly be wrenched away from her books.

Forty-five

1930

MARY AGNES HATELY
Glee club.

St. Anne

Mary Agnes is a cheery little lady whose wings ever carry her toward the flickering lights of gayety, but always within the realms of goodness, beauty, purity and joy. She is as true as her lovely eyes.

LORETTA HEGARTY

St. Joseph, St. Joseph, Michigan Loretta is Mercy's synonym for "perpetual laughter." She is always changing and laughing her way in and out of trouble, but she never makes trouble for others.

MARTHA HENEGHAN

St. Columbanus

Honor student; Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Mercian staff; Press club; El Circulo Espanol.

A laugh in a million has Martha. It is worth a hundred groans in any market. She is a dainty, darling little damsel.

MARGARET HENIFF

St. Columbanus

Honor student; Ciscora delegate; El Circulo Espanol; Sewing club.

Marge has depths of meditation. She seems always to live in a pleasant imaginary sweet land of lovely high ideals.

IRENE HERBES

Our Lady of Solace

Honor student; Classica Societas; Glee club.

Irene is energetic and "does things" though not blatantly. Hers is a nimbleness of mind and body.

DOLORES HICKS

St. Columbanus

Classica Societas; D. S. C.

The serious side of Dolores' character never obtrudes itself. On the rare occasions when it is revealed, it is always fitting.

CHARLOTTE HOBIN

St. Sabina

Press club; Booster club; D. S. C.

If Mercy goes under, so will Charlotte; if her class goes under, so will Charlotte. Exteriorly and interiorly she is unselfish loyalty.

ALICE HOGAN

St. Leo

Alice is truly a tailor-made girl. Even in moments of the greatest "tourbillions" she remains neatness personified. Sweet too and true she is.

1930

RITA HOGAN St. Dorothy
El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.
Rita's decided opinions are impulses of the moment, but they usually prove true. She has strong likes and dislikes, but knows how to control both.

FRANCES HONECK St. Anselm
Classica Societas; Glee club.
Frances has an almost unshakeable equanimity and serenity, but now and then she displays an unconscious naiveté.

ELEANOR HUGHES All Saints
Though Eleanor is unusually quiet, one now and then glimpses her reserves of laughter. She is like a little, wistful child.

CASSILDA HUTTNER St. Columbanus
Ciscora delegate; Mercy-Hi Rays staff; Press club; Glee club.
Cassilda has the magic of a pleasing face. She is easy to look at, but better to know.

PATRICIA HYLAND St. Carthage
El Circulo Espanol.
She satisfies an inclination for physical exercise by dancing. Pat and dancing can always be associated together. She can study too and help others.

LA VERNE HYNES St. Joachim
Classica Societas; D. S. C.
La Verne has the mildest manners, and the gentlest heart, a sweet attractive kind of grace.

CATHERINE JENEN St. Dorothy
El Circulo Espanol.
Actions must ever speak louder than words, and in Catherine's case, action helps more than a thousand sunshine talks.

ANNABEL JORDAN St. Rita
El Circulo Espanol.
Often Annabel's translations, which might be those of a Spanish senorita, have won breathing space for less fortunate students.

1930

ANNA FRANCES KEEGAN

St. Xavier

Glee club.

Halcyon days will be hers, for what can ruffle calm, cultured Anna Frances, fair and dainty and bright.

ANNAMAE KEEGAN

Parker High

Honor student; Ciscora delegate; Classica Societas.

Annamae seems to enjoy the contentment of a noble mind. All her actions are in accordance with the canons of good taste.

ALICE KELLY

St. Anne

Honor student; Classica Societas.

"Al" surely lives up to the Irish twinkle in her eyes. Her smiles are as catchin' as the measles and a whole lot more pleasant.

MARY KENNEDY

St. Dorothy

El Circulo Espanol.

Mary never runs her head against a stone wall; if a good thing is to be gained by patience, perseverance, or concentration, she obtains it.

NATHALIE KETCHAM

Parkside School

Nathalie will never know the drab monotony of eventless lives. She makes her own eventful and has little dabs of surprise for others too.

CATHERINE KILLIAN

St. Anne

Kay laughs a little, chaffs a little, jolly as she goes. She seems busy just being glad and making others glad.

ANNA KING

Holy Cross

Classica Societas; D. S. C.

Anna does not have to trouble about loyalty and virtue. They are just natural with her.

MARY KIRBY

St. Clara

Class financial secretary; Press club; Classica Societas; D. S. C.; Glee club.

Mary is ever busy, ever anxious to do some new thing and do it well. She belongs to Mercy.

Florence Smith to Lords and Dorothy.

VIRGINIA KLEINE

St. Matthew, Cincinnati, Ohio

Honor student; Classica Societas.

Virginia, honest and ever trustworthy, finds in her schoolwork a stimulus to accumulate a wealth of information.

MARGARET LEAHY

St. Joachim

Ciscora delegate; Sewing club.

"Generosity is a gift for which its possessors pay in full." Margaret has paid in full and enjoys the gift of friendships formed through her gift of generosity.

MARY LEAHY

St. Justin Martyr

Glee club.

Mary's dramatic power just will peep out in everything she does, but no one wants her to change. She has a rare gift.

MAKIE LEONARD

Holy Rosary

Basketball team.

Marie is a daughter of the outdoors. She is perpetual motion and plays at life with the enthusiasm of youth.

BERNADETTE LONG

Our Lady of Peace

Honor student; Le Cercle Francais; Sewing club.

This is one case in which "Long" is short. Bernadette is graced with a power of words and with sweet dignity in speaking them.

MARIE LORDEN

St. Dorothy

El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.

Marie is shrewd, original, and amusing. When she talks, her eyes talk, too.

HELEN LUTZ

St. Louis

Honor student; Classica Societas; Glee club.

Helen is a student of recognized ability, who, by determination and perseverance, has accomplished every aim.

ALICE MAHER

Sexton

Alice questions high school restrictions and then dances on with the lithe grace of a fairy, substantial and glad.

Forty-nine

THE MERCIAN

MARION MAHER St. Cecilia
Classica Societas.

Marion is a wee, perky senior, a graceful, jaunty, straight-forward, little figure.

ZENOBIA MALANOWSKI St. Rose of Lima
Classica Societas.

Zenobia is a pleasant and generous classmate. She will be remembered as the arbutus of her high school days.

GERALDINE MALONE St. Brendan
Jerry's cordial, kindly affection and her smile of a kindred soul are enough to lift up anyone's heart.

LEANOR MCBRIDE St. Sabina
Leanor's queenly bearing belies her "lesson palsy." At all times except at recitations she has perfect poise.

EILEEN MCCAHEY St. Columbanus
Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Mercian staff; Press club; El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.

Eileen has a cavalier's code of conduct, a hidden strength and glint of clashing steel beneath her casual air. She is lovely and beloved.

ELIZABETH MCCARTHY Our Lady of Peace
Le Cercle Francais; Mercian staff; Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Press club; Glee club.

Beth early qualified herself for business leadership and thus won her place as business manager of the Hi-Rays '29 and the Mercian '30.

LAURINE MCFADDEN St. Brendan
El Circulo Espanol; Press club.

Laurine is never swayed by popular sentiment unless that sentiment is on a par with her high moral ideals.

KATHLEEN MCGETRICK Our Lady of Peace
Honor student; president, Le Cercle Francais; Sewing club; Ciscora delegate.

Kathleen has a "talkative" face. It reveals a sincere contempt for meanness and an affable disposition toward the world in general.

I wish I need hard yours it will be yours it will Marge flourish.

MARGUERITE MCGLYNN St. Sabina
El Circulo Espanol.

Marguerite's sanity and insight bring harmony and order. Her cheerfulness and radiant hospitality are signs of her princely spirit.

MARY MCGOVERN St. Columbanus
Press club.

If ever joy slights us, or sorrow fails to look the other way, as too often it will, we need but resort to Mary, a real comfort and a real Mercy girl.

EILEEN MCGUIRE St. Gabriel
El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.

Worry and Eileen are strangers. She often sees fun where others miss it, and to her, care is an enemy in life.

ELVIRA MCHUGH Visitation
Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Press club;
Classica Societas.

Wherever courageous spirits roam, there, impulsive, unselfish Elvira is certain to be, vibrant with health and vitality. Everything she does she backs with a quick, relentless enthusiasm.

DOROTHY MCKIRCHY Burnside
Dorothy has adopted a go-as-you-please policy. "Oh why should life all labor be?"

GRACE MCMAHON St. Brendan
Honor student.

Grace has an individual charm about her. She is the supreme combination of all that is dainty, kind and true.

MARIE MCNALLY St. Anne
Classica Societas; Glee club.

Sweet, mischievous Marie — who couldn't know that she is Blossom's chum? Wonder what she's up to now?

ANN MCNAMARA Visitation
Ciscora delegate; orchestra.

Ann is an adorable "enfant terrible" who specializes in piquant, comic opera. She can make any yarn seem colorful and exciting. She is lovable, true and loyal.

*Loads of Love to
"My Big Moments"
Sister.*

CATHERINE McNAMARA St. Leo
El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.

Catherine is not given to sudden friendships, but those she forms are true. She has an unfeigned characteristic courtesy.

FAYETTE McNAMARA St. Patrick

Fayette submits to the influence of sun, blue sky, and silver lining. She is a tranquil girl, friendly and courteous.

MARTHA McNAMEE St. Gabriel
El Circulo Espanol.

Which are you? It does not matter, Martha is sweet, obliging, humorous, happy.

MARY McNAMEE St. Gabriel
El Circulo Espanol.

Mary is the other one. All that Martha is, Mary is too—the other twin.

HELEN McVADY St. Sabina
Honor student; Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; D. S. C.

They say, "If I could learn as Helen does I'd go in for it." She gives her friends a sense of countless quality.

HELEN MENTEN Holy Angels, Sidney, Ohio
Honor student; Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; editor - in - chief, Mercian; Press club; Classica Societas.

Helen's eagerness to make this Mercian the best on the market proved an impetus to those working under her. The book is only one example of the fruits of her reliability, enthusiasm, and hard-working spirit.

RUTH MILLER Longwood
Press club; Sewing club.

Sweet, dainty, generous Ruth, with a soul of gold and a tender heart.

GENEVIEVE MILLS Holy Rosary
Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; diploma student; accompanist, Glee club.

Great things are expected of "Gen," an accomplished pianist, with an attractive voice and personality.

MARGARET MITCHELL St. Columbanus
El Circulo Espanol.

Margaret never does anything for effect. What she does is done only because it is a good action.

HELEN MOLONEY St. Leo
El Circulo Espanol.

Helen is true to her name, clear, clean and kind.

PATRICIA MOLSEED Our Lady of Peace
Ciscora delegate; Press club; Classica Societas; president, Booster club; Glee club.

"Pat's" pep, personality, and delightful sense of humor are the chief components of a wonderful organizational capacity.

KATHLEEN MOORE St. Sabina
Honor student; Glee club.

Kathleen believes if she can't triumph over conditions, she can keep them from triumphing over her, and she does.

DOROTHY MORAN St. Nicholas
Glee club.

Dorothy's blithe, airy manner is as expressive as a Frenchman's shrug. She has Parisian grace, too, and is a great danseuse.

MARJORIE MOSHER D. S. Wentworth
D. S. C.

No one would expect from Margie's schoolroom manner that she really craves excitement. She stops looking for fun only when she finds it. She is our baby, tender, sweet, and graceful.

KATHRYN MOYNIHAN Holy Cross
Press club; El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.; Glee club.

"Kay's" views and tastes are modern. She appreciates the flurries and pretty follies of a social life, but is true blue withal.

LILLIAN MURRAY St. Basil

"He laugheth that winneth" in Lillian's case is "she winneth who laugheth." "Lil" trusts to happiness and luck, but she does her bit too in life's work.

ROSETTA MURRAY

St. Sabina

Honor student; Ciscora delegate;
Classica Societas.

Rosetta is the ideal friend—she is the same to-day as to-morrow, a rose that does not wither under changing atmosphere, a rose fragrant with sweet messages of good cheer.

ELEANOR NASH

St. Patrick

Honor student; Ciscora delegate;
D. S. C.

Eleanor has the adroitness and will to actualize dreams. Her decided opinions are backed up by deliberation.

MARGUERITE NEWCOMB

Orland Park

Marguerite's straight and beautiful carriage is the reflection of a straight and beautiful soul.

MARGARET NEYLON

St. Patrick

Classica Societas.

Margaret's high standard of virtue forbids her to do anything that is not becoming to a comely, curly-haired Mercy girl.

MARY NICHOLAS

St. Theodore

El Circulo Espanol.

All conscience and all courage is Mary characterized in a word. She has a placid common sense undisturbed by any agitation.

CELIA NOONE

St. Cecelia

Class vice-president; Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Classica Societas; honor student.

Brisk, animated "Sid" is a girl of varied interests; she excels in studies and in sports. She has the discernment and graciousness of the true leader, and, as vice-president, makes an able assistant for Marion.

DOLORES O'BRIEN

Our Lady of Good Council

El Circulo Espanol.

Prudent Dolores does nothing without preliminary planning. Her accomplishments prove the value of this.

MARY O'BRIEN

St. Killian

Honor student; Classica Societas.

A true Mercy girl is Mary, loyal and willing, and ready to meet emergencies.

MARGARET O'CONNOR Our Lady of Peace
Honor student; El Circulo Espanol.
Margaret's mental powers are never starved by desire because she acquired a taste for knowledge.

CATHERINE O'DONNELL Longwood
Ciscora delegate; Mercy-Hi Rays staff; Press club; Classica Societas; Glee club.

*Under a sweet, wholesome exterior "C.
O. D." has a strength of character, a distinctive personality complimented with sincerity and veracity.*

EILEEN O'DONNELL Longwood
Classica Societas; Glee club; Outdoor club; Basketball team.

Eileen, a lovely, lively creature with action in every feature, is the rare combination of the beautiful, the studious, and the athletic. Everyone loves Eileen.

MARIE O'HALLORAN St. Leo
El Circulo Espanol.

Dainty Marie displays a love for excitement and a zestful interest in fashion and its reign, but she is a student too.

MARY O'NEILL St. Dorothy
Honor student; Mercian staff; Press club; Art club; Classica Societas.

*There may be a finer classmate than Mary, but who has heard of one?
Everything she does is done with distinction.*

MARIE O'ROURKE Holy Cross
El Circulo Espanol.

Marie is a dark, dashing creature tinged with love of fun. Her every action proves her sociability.

JULIA PATTS St. Cecelia
Classica Societas.

Julia is considerate and kind without being demonstrative. In her first year she was described as the "typical Freshie," and she still is just that.

MINNIE POLLACK Vanderbilt,
Vanderbilt, Penn.

Classica Societas; Basketball team; orchestra.

Minnie is self-reliant and her own master always. She is strong, active, and muscular, and given the incentive such as basketball, she acts with impetuous speed.

*Longwood

*Grad of Love
Marie*

*Marie O'Rourke
a cheering smile meets one always when we see you
the mirror of a wonderful disposition*

DOROTHY QUINN St. Dorothy
Classica Societas; Glee Club; Outdoor club; basketball team.

By virtue of many gifts and little worry, Dot has become an honor student, a splendid musician, a dancer of repute, and a star on the basketball floor. An exceedingly amiable disposition adds much to the charm her talents give her.

LENORE QUINN St. Columbanus
Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; Art club; D. S. C.; Glee club; Library staff.

Lenore is always on the alert for something new and exciting. She craves a helpful part in all activities and thus is a real asset to the many organizations she belongs to.

MILDRED RAFTER St. Dorothy
El Circulo Espanol.

Mildred has a dignity of thought and language and bearing, a graceful impressiveness.

MARIE REGAL St. Anselm
Ciscora delegate; president, Classica Societas; D. S. C.; Glee club.

Marie is a tall brunette gifted with patrician grace. "She moves as a goddess, and looks like a queen."

ADELE REID St. Anne
Mercian staff; Press club.

Adele is Mercy's little tomboy senior whose countenance radiates an interior happiness. Everything she does, especially her writing, has the same characteristic brightness.

ESTHER RINDERER Holy Cross
Prefect, sodality; Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29; Press club; El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.; Glee club.

Esther's complacent manner and assurance and balance breed faith and confidence in her judgment. Her calmness is the repose of conscious power.

FRANCES ROLSTON St. Rita
Sewing club; Glee club.

Frances is a "dancing" senior. Even her eyes dance dances when there is music.

CECELIA ROONEY Nativity
Cecelia's eager, ready smile and friendly eye show a real fellow-feeling for her classmates.

Fifty-six

1930

MILDRED ROSEKRANS

Bowen

Honor student; D. S. C.

One wonders out of which old romance Mildred has stepped, she is so like a soft-voiced, dark-eyed heroine.

VIRGINIA RUSSELL

St. Anselm

Le Cercle Francais; Glee club.

She is the embodiment of etherealism, this Virginia, whose dancing is an art of graceful, rhythmic, swaying, of sylphine poses.

LORETTA SCANLAN

St. Gabriel

El Circulo Espanol; D. S. C.

Loretta is "to all obliging, yet reserved to all." She has the mildness and sweet reasonableness of a Christian heart.

MARGARET SHAW

St. Rita

El Circulo Espanol.

Serious, calm, and retiring, Margaret takes a sober survey of school life and spends her energy in real, honest-to-goodness work.

JESSIE ELLEN SIMONS Our Lady of Peace

Honor student; Mercian staff; Press club; Classica Societas; Glee club.

Eager to understand the other's point of view is Jessie, an aspiring journalist who is seeking a goal, not a parking place. Her excellent and interested work should assure her success.

MARY SPENCER

St. Columbanus

El Circulo Espanol.

One could count Mary's serious moments. With her elastic spirits and laugh of merry scorn, Mary lightens the day's burden.

MILDRED SPIERING

St. Columbanus

Honor student; D. S. C.; Glee club; Press club.

There is nothing poseur or dramatic about Mildred, though she laughs all the time and never alone.

HELEN STARK

St. Leo

El Circulo Espanol; Sewing club.

Helen's gentleness is a perfect supplement to her vigor. She has a heart of benevolence.

*"Just me"
you know*

MARCELLA STRAUSS

St. Leo

Mercy-Hi Rays staff '29.

Marcella is a girl of candid opinion. Yet she possesses a virtuous indifference which prevents her likes and dislikes from affecting her disposition.

ELEANOR SWEENEY

St. Joseph, Dubuque, Iowa

Ciscora delegate; Classica Societas.

Always laughing, always late, Eleanor in voice and manner is a gay little patrician.

MARJORIE SWEENEY

Holy Rosary

Glee club.

"Mary's" eyes, feet, and hands keep true time to current activities. She believes those wise who seek struggle and action. She is sweet and glad.

MARY TABER

St. Anselm

Ciscora delegate; D. S. C.; Glee club.

Mary has a versatile interest. She dances, cooks, sews, all with the delicate touch of a fine craftsman.

GRACE TOELLE

St. Columbanus

Classica Societas; Glee club.

Because of people like Grace life is sweeter, poems grander. She lives a sermon of charity and sings sweet songs of loving gladness.

EMILY TRACY

Sullivan

Emily has a sense of the fit and appropriate. The right thing at the right time is her rare complex.

ESTHER VAN DOLMAN

St. Theodore

Esther keeps her head up and her eyes ever on the lookout for mischief. She goes in seriously for pranks but for good clean, wholesome work too.

MARGUERITE VOIGT

St. Anselm

D. S. C.; Glee club.

"Life is a jest, and all things show it. I thought so once, but now I know it."

On stage and off, Marguerite is Trouble's vigorous, ingenious opponent. Her sweet voice and glad manner are assets to her school.

1930

RITA WAGNER St. Columbanus
Classica Societas; Glee club; Outdoor club.

Rita has the traits and qualities of a well-rounded individual. She has the heart of a saint and the courage of a lion when she can do good for others.

COLETTE WALL St. Leo
Colette's is a thinking mind walled in by reticence. She never speaks without really saying something.

MARGARET WALSH St. Joachim
Classica Societas.
Margaret has the rare but pleasing combination of red hair and peaceful nature. She has acquired repose as a habit.

MARY WARD St. Joachim
El Circulo Espanol.
Her complacency is to be marveled at, her beauty painted, and her sweetness imitated. Mary lives her beautiful name.

ANNA MARIE WEHLE St. Xavier
Classica Societas.
In her life as well as in her work, Anna Marie is a model of accuracy, conciseness, vigor, and simple beauty.

JANE WELLMAN Nativity
Classica Societas.
If one measures the success of a day by its mileage, Jane's days are noteworthy, for she daily travels far in her quest for knowledge.

MARIE WYNN St. Francis de Sales
El Circulo Espanol.
Whether it be banking or peddling peanuts, Marie will do it thoroughly. Whatever the subject she would render it admirably. She is noted for her unselfish generosity.

Love to our artist's trees.

Trombone—Bernice Murphy, June Hellyer.

Sausaphone—Frances Butler.

Marimphone—Marjorie Doty, Bernadine Greene.

Drums—Carmen Fredericks.

Piano—Louise Mooney.

The orchestra is one of the most popular organizations of the school. It furnishes music for many school activities and has won the applause of every audience for which it has performed. The orchestra has added tremendously to the success of various programs given in Mercy's auditorium. In the orchestra contest of 1929, sponsored by the Chicago School Band association, Mercy's orchestra won distinction by meriting second place, and was awarded a banner of recognition.

THE BAND

Cornet—Rita Smith, Bernadine Jansen, Rita Prendergast, Dorothea Fonzen, Mary Brennan, Mary Regan, Alice Conboy, Virginia Kennelly.

Clarinet—Marjorie Delaney, Annamae Murphy, Marie Kilgannon, Eileen Dunne, Leila Fanning, Mary Otis, Dolores Beatty, Inez Nolan, Mary Golden, Adelaide Sinila, Marie Doran, Rose Meeks, June Hellyer.

Trombone—Bernice Murphy, Lydia Gudgeon, Kathleen Daley, Eileen Doody.

Flute—Catherine Egan.

Saxophone—Lenore Kempf, Helen Chamberlain, Ann McNamara, Beatrice Kolb.

French Horn—Lillian Quinlan, LaVerne Crepeau, Mary McCabe, Margaret Albertson.

Baritone—Helen Hodges, Anne McErlane.

Sausaphone—Mary Kebisek, Frances Butler.

Marimbophone—Bernadine Greene, Marjorie Doty.

Drum—Carmen Fredericks, Genevieve Martin.

The school band was so recently organized that it has had little publicity. However, by diligent practice, it is coming into its own and it is expected that next year the activities of the band will include everything from furnishing music for student activities to giving concerts of celebrated composers.

THE STORY

Fairday in Bagdad is marked by the arrival of various visitors, among them the American consul, Mrs. Horace McCann, with her daughter Elsa, and her daughter's friend Anne. Lord Archie Fitzgibbons and Henrietta Whipstitch are also present. On being presented to the Caliph and his daughter Jewel, they learn that an assassin, who carries a bomb concealed in a camera, is abroad, and for this reason all persons with cameras are to be shot immediately.

Dick Taylor and party arrive by airplane from Hollywood. They are seeking a lovely girl, known only as the Belle of Bagdad, to engage her as a movie star. They hope to identify her by some small photographs which they carry, and also by an amulet she wears, but in order to make sure they bring a large camera with them to make pictures of all prospects.

Dick meets Jewel, who welcomes him cordially, but his friends Bob and Bill meet Ali Ben Mustapha, the chief of police, who sees their camera and orders them to be executed forthwith. In order to escape, Bill and Bob resort to disguises, first as Darvishes, and afterwards as members of the Caliph's body-guard. While in this disguise they manage to capture the real assassin, and in return for their valor the Caliph orders Jewel to present Dick with the sacred amulet. This proves to identify her as the Belle. Bill and Bob are freed in time to couple with Elsa and Anne, while Henrietta finds solace in the companionship of Ali Ben Mustapha.

MERCY FEDERATION

The Mercy Federation is one of the most active organizations connected with Mercy high school and the Sisters of Mercy. Its very purpose—"to promote and further the interests of the Sisters of Mercy, particularly in the development of Mercy high school"—bespeaks this fact. This alumnæ association is composed of the graduates of the various Mercy institutions, past and present, including St. Patrick, St. Elizabeth, St. Ita, St. James and St. Gabriel high schools, St. Xavier college and academy, Mercy Hospital Training School for Nurses, and now Mercy high school, which already can boast of over one thousand alumnæ in its short existence. With each new activity sponsored by this splendid organization, the bond of filial union and friendship existing between its members has become more and more marked, and so rapid has been its development, so vast its influence, that today this society stands a monument to the principles and teachings of the Sisters of Mercy.

For Mercy girls graduation no longer means a parting with all the scenes of their happy school life for Mercy Federation and Mercy Alumnæ afford them ample opportunity to return and review these joyous scenes for the sake of "Auld Lang Syne." Mercy girls are all proud of the Federation to which they belong—proud of its splendid achievement and success—and proud of the honor it renders to their Alma Mater.

One of the outstanding activities was the reception given in honor of Mother Mary Sophia, Provincial of the Chicago province of the Sisters of Mercy. Hundreds of friends and former students of Mother Sophia as well as the members of the Federation attended to pay respect to her on the occasion of her appointment. On this occasion these friends proved their fealty by a living testimonial, the Mother Mary Sophia scholarship.

The annual meeting, which included reports of the officers of the past year and election of officers for the coming year, was held at Mercy High school on November 24. The feature of the meeting was the address, "Gathering Up the Fragments," by Sister Mary Celeste, Ph. D. Tea was served after the meeting.

On Saturday, March 1, a successful card party was sponsored by the federation at the Stevens hotel.

MERCY ALUMNAE

The Mercy Alumnæ is active both independently and as a unit of the Mercy Federation. Their first party this year was a get-together card party in October. This gathering was held at Mercy, where all enjoyed the familiar scenes and faces. This year's formal, which was held at the Opera club in February, was the most popular feature of the year's activities. The attendance at this dance crowded the ballroom almost beyond its capacity.

The annual reception to the class of 1930 was held at Mercy High school on May 3. This class added 222 new members to the alumnæ.

SOME OF OUR MOTHERS

MERCY MOTHERS' AUXILIARY

To the Mercy Mothers' auxiliary, which, for the past five years has been indefatigable in promoting the interests of the school, the Sisters and girls of Mercy High school express sincere and prayerful gratitude. This society meets on the second Tuesday of each month to discuss ways and means of helping the school, and on each fourth Tuesday to spend a social afternoon. From these meetings has resulted much good, not the least of which is the strong bond of friendship formed among these splendid, unselfish mothers, who throw off for a while the cares of home and become, as it were, young girls again with their own daughters.

The beautifully furnished reception room and lobby, the grand piano in the music hall, and the Mercy Mothers' auxiliary scholarship are only a few of the visible results of the Mercy Mothers' untiring zeal in the interests of Catholic education. Officers for the present year are Mrs. Wilson Collin, president; Mrs. Robert Townsend, vice president; Mrs. Frank Santschi, secretary; Mrs. William Coulson, treasurer.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Standing—Cecilia Bennetti, Eleanor Beauregard, Elizabeth McCarthy, Janet Forman, Ann Durkin.

Seated—Bernadette Long, Kathleen McGetrick, Carolyn Fraher.

Le Cercle Francais, composed of members of the senior French class, was formed for the purpose of promoting an active interest in the language, life and history of France.

Club meetings are held once a month, and French songs, games, and conversation form important additions to the program.

Each member is given an opportunity to correspond with a French student in a distant city. The club numbers among its correspondents pupils in Montreal, Saskatchewan, and other parts of Canada.

Le Cercle Francais, not only instructs and aids its members in the detailed study of French, but also assists them in the formation of lasting friendships.

The senior Latin students observed the bimillennium anniversary of the birth of Virgil by the organization of the Classica Societas. The general aim of this society was to cultivate in the members a greater knowledge and appreciation of the practical and cultural value of the Aeneid.

Every student was urged to contribute pictures and articles to a large scrap book which is to be left to succeeding classes as a precious legacy.

Mercy can boast of the existence of a department where a surprising amount of artistic talent finds expression. The Art club is finding constant attractions for students who have such talent. The club is composed of members of the commercial art class who aim to make the subject that of their future work.

In this year's Catholic high school art exhibit at De Paul university, the Mercy exhibit, representing work of the Art club, was awarded honorable mention.

THE SODALITY

Through the four divisions of Mercy's sodality, which are Eucharistic, Our Lady's, Catholic Literature, and Missionary, all our religious duties are amply cared for. There is in the sodality, the personal element which assures the wholehearted interest and cooperation of every Mercy girl. The sodality is not for a few, but for every girl, and those who are more actively engaged in sodalist affairs than others have been chosen and selected by the student body at large.

The main motive of the sodality is Catholic action; Catholic action, however, without sham or pretense, for every Mercy sodalist's motto is "Personal sanctification." Catholic action established upon the bed-rock of Personal Sanctification cannot be anything but enduring and worthwhile. The ideals acquired by personal sanctification will take root in our hearts, and ever increasing in impetus, all through life will blossom and bear the wholesome fruit of Catholic action.

The Eucharistic section of the sodality has been on the alert for every opportunity to introduce ways and means of bringing our girls closer to the Eucharistic Heart of Our Lord. And happy indeed we are to tell the world that we have succeeded. The number of our daily visits is something to be proud of. A visitor can go to the chapel any time of the day and will find one, two or more of the girls in silent admiration. Does this not show their love of Our Eucharistic Lord? In our effort to make our girls realize the value of Holy Communion, Perpetual Communion Leagues have been established in many rooms.

In assembling the number of Communions, it was found that 42,171 Communions have been received by our Mercy girls since September. We also have 500 weekly communicants, and 180 daily communicants.

Surely by practicing all these works of mercy, and by performing self-sacrificing acts, our girls have been brought closer to the Eucharistic Heart of Our Lord.

Our Lady Section of Ciscora has a special attraction for the girls of Mercy, who have chosen Our Blessed Lady as their model. The first week of every month was given over to the special activities of this group of sodalists. During the first week of December, which ended with the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, each girl promised to say one thousand times, the aspiration, "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to Thee." A daily account was kept, and at the end of the week, we were pleased to offer one million aspirations to Our Blessed Mother.

From the second of February to the eleventh, both great feasts of Our Queen, the large statue of the Blessed Virgin in the lobby of the school was surrounded by votive lamps. A novena was also made during these days.

During the month of March, Living Rosaries were established in the various rooms.

May, the special month of Our Heavenly Queen, again saw the erection of beautiful May-altars in the different rooms. The activities of the month culminated in the usual procession, and the coronation of the Blessed Virgin by the president of the sodality.

"Read Books by Catholic authors or by authors whose works support the moral code of the Catholic Church." With this slogan in mind, the reading material of our girls has been guided. Posting of recommended books with their library "call numbers" facilitates the securing of these books.

Books pertaining to or dealing with the "Monthly Intentions" are especially emphasized.

Another avenue through which books are transmitted is in the interesting reports of books published in each edition of the school paper. These so cleverly whet the literary appetites that our girls eagerly read them. A great number of these Catholic books and magazines, brought by the girls are later sent to the missions.

One of the most educational entertainments given by the sodality for the students assembly was "Our Lady's Hour." Slides of the different Madonnas were shown and accompanied with talks by the art students, explaining the origin and artist of each picture.

The correlation of Catholic literature with English has been carried on by taking such subjects as "My Crucifix" or "What My Rosary Means to Me" for our theme work and in topics for discussion.

Work! Save! Pray! This is our slogan; well worthy of notice. The missions offer our opportunity. The aim of the missionary section, of Ciscora, is to aid Christ's workers at home and in foreign lands. At Mercy, the missions have been helped in many ways. The "Have-a-heart" tag day here at Mercy proved a great success due to the wonderful cooperation rendered by the girls. This served as a means for obtaining money for the less fortunate mission friends.

Altar linens were made by the girls of various rooms to encourage and help the missionaries in their work. A chalice composed of discarded gold articles given by the girls is to be completed and sent to a needy missionary priest. Great quantities of stamps and tinfoil have been sent to foreign lands together with the money saved by the girls.

FIRST FRIDAY

A most edifying public worship of God is that shown by the girls on every First Friday. Laying aside all worldly thoughts, they cheerfully offer the day to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Beginning in the morning, they attend Mass. Appropriate hymns are sung, and prayers are recited. During the Mass, the school in a body receives Holy Communion. Throughout the entire day, class by class, the school visits the chapel spending the time in silent meditation, in singing, or in oral praying. The chapel is never without its group of adoring visitors. Two classes each First Friday attend Benediction, concluding thus this day of love for the Savior Jesus.

RETREAT

APRIL 14, 15, 16, 1930

During Holy Week Mercy girls had a most efficacious retreat. For three days they withdrew from all social connections and gave themselves wholly up to God under the guidance of Rev. L. Weitzman, S. J., their retreat master. Perfect silence was their accompanying gift to God.

Attending Mass each morning and receiving Holy Communion, the girls' actions were appropriate even from the beginning. After breakfast a short time was spent in meditation before attending the morning conference. This conference lasted about an hour and then confessions were heard. An afternoon conference followed luncheon, and then the girls again were permitted a short period for silent thought. The day closed with a sermonette and Benediction.

Father Weitzman especially charged the girls to be "their brothers' keepers," and to be examples to modern youth. On the last day, resolutions of the girls—outward results of the retreat—were placed on the Altar. The three days ended with Holy Hour, Benediction, and the Papal Blessing.

Dearest Florence,

How can we ever forget the funny experiences and the thrilling moments of the press convention. But this is to keep you in mind of them. Remember the diary? And the times we worked together on the Mercian? Florence, I like every little bit of work you did; I love it. You did more for this Mercian, honey, than any other girl. Love and kisses,

THE PRESS CLUB

One of the most recently founded student organizations is the Press club, whose aims are purely literary and educational. This club endeavors to encourage natural writing ability among the girls, to improve the students' literary composition, and to provide an introduction to journalism.

The staff members of the Mercian and the Mercy-Hi Rays cooperated to establish the Press club which they believed would be of assistance in improving the contributions for the two school publications. Since the study of journalism attracts many of the girls, a number of enthusiastic members have been added to the club.

Included in the membership of the Press club are the school Boosters, who form a club of their own under the leadership of Patricia Molseed, president. The Boosters are twenty-nine girls, one from each room of the school. Each girl represents her room on the staff and acts both as solicitor and reporter for the Mercian and the Mercy-Hi Rays.

Although the Mercian staff, the Hi Rays staff, and the Booster club automatically become members of the Press club, they do not compose its entire membership. Any senior or junior who has proved her interest in journalism is eligible to join the club.

Helen Blandford, who successfully edited the school newspaper last year, is chairman. Catherine Menten, assistant chairman, is the only other officer. The remaining club members who do not belong to the Booster club or to the staffs are: Gwendolyn Firmin, Julia Angland, Rita Smith, Miriam Mack, Ruth Miller, Esther Rinderer, Bernadine Greene, Virginia Gruner, Mary McGovern, Mary Kirby, Frances Davis, and Catherine Moynihan.

The Mercy Press club forms a unit of the Greater Chicago Scholastic Press Guild, which meets monthly at Northwestern university.

MERCIAN

The Mercian, our annual school publication, is edited by the members of the senior class. The National Scholastic Press Association presented the 1929 Mercian with an All American Honor Rating, the award of superiority. In order to maintain this high quality in this year's book, the editorial staff members have worked diligently all year under the competent leadership of Helen Menten and Elizabeth McCarthy. The art work of Florence Burns speaks for itself.

Only students who are able to maintain A- in composition, who show a desire to write, and who have at least some talent for writing are qualified for membership. As the name of the club indicates, themes are written weekly, and the best each week is posted. Every girl in the group above has had her themes selected as best at least once, and many have had theirs chosen several times.

ATHLETICS AT MERCY

The gates of another season of athletics at Mercy have been closed. Behind the portals are memories of thrilling games of basketball, volleyball, baseball, tennis, and golf. On account of the accommodations, basketball has been the criterion of sports at Mercy. Sectional games have been played by the school team with a record of six victories, a tie, and a defeat.

Athletics at Mercy have been a haven of refuge to the girls after a hard day's work. They have taught the girls to think accurately, to understand the value of physical and mental health. From a moral, mental, and physical standpoint, there is nothing that helps to make good sound citizens, as much as the experience of a good athletic game.

CAPTAIN NORM was the logical selection for captain and in her the team secured a leader of great ability. Her work on the forward floor was recognized by critics everywhere she played. Norma has been to her team an example of good sportsmanship, grit, and determination.

Marie's inexperience barred her from a steady season. She is splendid competition whether "guard" or side center.

RITA MUNDAY—Guard

Not so fast as our senior guards but just as dependable. Rita has saved many a point from scoring up for our opponents. Fair play is Rita's motto.

MARY WALSH—Side Center

Reliable "Bunny." When it came to getting the ball to the forward territory, Mary would put it there with a twitch of her thumb. She is an expert at handling the ball and covering ground.

One Hundred Forty-eight

DOROTHY QUINN—Forward

Tiny "Dot" was always "there" to help. Her sure aim and speed enabled her to run up the score in more than one game. "Dot's" sweetness and willing spirit have endeared her to her teammates.

MARY JANE TULLY—Jumping Center
(at left)

"Petie" came to the front after Helen's illness and saved the day. Her attempts to hold the center post were always successful. Keep your eye on Mary Jane next year.

AGNES MORRIS—Guard

"Sugar" is sweeter than the name implies. She can "hold 'em back" with calmness and certainty. A dandy little player and all around guard.

MARJORIE DOTY—Forward

"Sure shot Terry" is well acquainted with the forward territory. Marjorie can sink baskets from far or near. Marjorie's future is certain.

EILEEN O'DONNELL—Guard

"Little" Eileen has been an outstanding factor in all of the games played this year. Her ability to play, keep cool, and think fast, has merited her the reward of being our "best guard."

MARY HULTS—Jumping Center (at right)

Not so fast as Mary Jane but with a high "reach" she was ready competition for "Petie." Experience teaches, so watch the books.

GWENDOLYN FIRMIN—Jumping Center

Lacking in height but not in ability to pass and to play defense. Gwen plays guard, forward, or center. Quite versatile is she.

MARIE BLYTHE—Guard

Light as a feather and quick as a flash is Marie. She and her two room mates were "mid-season" finds and have stepped in with the willing spirit and fair play of the rest of the team.

RUTH FORREST—Guard

As a partner for Eileen, Ruth splendidly fills the place. Her remarkable playing, exact guarding, and smiling countenance have made her indispensable to the varsity team and contributed much to her popularity.

VIRGINIA GAVIGAN—Guard (at left)

A very promising junior. Virginia's consistent guarding will be most troubling to opponents next year. Her spunk and courage will urge the team to victory.

CATHERINE O'BRIEN—Guard

An unusually good player is Catherine and only a soph too. Already she is making way for a place on the varsity team. Watch her get it!

HELEN CHAMBERLAIN—Forward

Only a sophomore with much time to improve and become one of our stars. Helen possesses the spirit of "up and at 'em" much envied by all sportsmen.

MINNIE POLLACK—Side Center

"Sunny Boy" probably earned her title because of her "sunny" personality. "Min" does her best at all times for the squad's success.

EVELYN BACHLI—Forward (at right)

A wizard of the season was Evelyn. Whether she was guarded or not meant little to "Eve"; she sank them just the same. A second Mary Bishop is the verdict. Wait and see.

HELEN NAGLE—Forward

"Eve's" partner and standby. A neat little asset to the team. With more experience she will probably earn a star position next year.

RITA JOHNSON—Guard

Rita's passing ability earned her a place on the squad. With some improvement she will be most valuable to the team. She's only a soph, but oh-oh!

MERCY ALUMNAE, 13; MERCY, 35

Mercy's former basketball stars met defeat at the hands of the school team with a score of 35 to 13. The remarkable speed and passing of the squad foretold a brilliant season for Mercy. Our girls were at their best all during the game in spite of the splendid opposition given by our alumnae friends.

(Woodlawn) LORETTO, 21; MERCY, 34

A thing well begun is half done; so runs the old proverb. And so it was at the Loretto, Woodlawn game. The Mercy squad sailed into a sweeping victory. However, the billows were not so easy to ride as the Loretto girls played a plucky, defensive game.

(Englewood) LORETTO, 13; MERCY, 13

The most exciting game ever played in Mercy's gym. Both teams determined to win, made the game excitingly defensive as well as thrillingly offensive. Loretto obtained an early lead which she held until the third quarter. The score at the half was 10 to 4 in favor of Loretto. The tables turned in the second half bringing the score to a tie 13 to 13, after a five minute overtime period. A speedy game from start to finish.

VISITATION, 9; MERCY, 26

A game with our friends from Visitation resulted in a second victory for Mercy. Visitation made the first basket. Mercy followed almost immediately with two points for the white and gold. The score at the half was 16 to 7, Mercy leading. With renewed courage Mercy came back into the fight, raising the score to 26 against Visitation's 9, at the close of the game.

One Hundred Fifty-four

LONGWOOD, 26; MERCY, 11

Mercy's squad played the role of victim to Longwood in the most anticipated game of the season, giving to Longwood their sixth scholastic victory for the season.

The teams were well matched, although Longwood showed their superiority when the final score of 26 to 11 was attained. Each girl did her best, but Lady Luck was against us. May the best team win, reads the old proverb; and so it did.

MERCY ALUMNAE, 13; MERCY, 31

The Alumnae received defeat at the hands of Mercy varsity in the last game played on the home floor. The school team were at their best. Their passing was quick, sure, and clever, perhaps the best they have exhibited during the season.

The Alumnae offered in their usual sportsmanlike manner a hearty cheer and congratulation for their conquerors.

MERCY (Milwaukee), 18; MERCY (Chicago), 31

April 12—a day of days! Why? Mercy High of Chicago went via bus to Mercy High of Milwaukee. Words cannot express our happiness and the good wholesome fun which we had going and coming as well as the most wonderful time which the Milwaukee Sisters and girls showed us in their usual cordial way. The delightful game with our friends resulted in a victory for Chicago, 34 to 18.

U-RAH-RAH—ANNE U-RAH-RAH—CATHERINE

What would a game of basketball be without cheers? It would be like a prom without music. What would cheers be without leaders? They would be like music without harmony.

And so to our two harmony girls, Anne and Catherine, we express our appreciation for their earnest endeavors to spur the team on to victory. Anne will leave Mercy this year, much to our regret, but Mercy rooters will still smile and cheer with Catherine through another season of basketball.

THE TOURNAMENTS

There have been some very exciting and thrilling games played in Mercy's gym, but none have been more exciting or thrilling than the games played among the interclass teams. The girls participating in the contests have put forth their best efforts for success. As a result, the best athletes and those who are best able to represent the school in bigger games are discovered and later worked up.

The senior tournament was the first of the series of contests. The championship game was played between Rooms 6 and 7, the former being the victor. This probably was the most exuberant game of the tournament, as both teams were splendidly matched.

The junior tournament followed, giving the championship to Room 4. The girls well deserved the victory as they played a clever, speedy game from start to finish.

After the junior tournament came the sophomore contest. The sophs had the largest attendance of fans and spectators, probably because of the prospective members of the school team. Room 14 was the victorious team, completely conquering their opponents.

Last but not least, came the freshie tournament, so anxiously awaited for. The freshmen proved in their games that those long hours of practice were not in vain, for they afforded a great outlook for the future school team. The girls of the winning team, Room 23, were awarded a silver cup, which they richly deserved.

From these spectacular tournaments, bright prospects have come for another championship team.

Alumnae, 19; Longwood, 15

Basketball is still an important feature in the lives of our former Mercyites. But owing to the late start, the girls have only been able to play one outside game. That was with Longwood, resulting in a victory for our former stars.

The game was played in our gym which was thronged that night with the most enthusiastic audience that ever attended an alumnae game. Former classmates were happy to see one another and all joined to cheer their pals on to victory.

Longwood started out with a four point lead, but almost immediately Mercy followed with a basket. The score at the half was 10 to 6, Mercy leading.

With renewed courage the Mercy girls came into the game determined to win. The playing in this half was about even, each team scoring nine points, and leaving the final margin 19 to 15—a victory for Mercy.

The game was not spectacular but the excellent team work, the sturdy passes, and the speed of the players combined to produce an interesting game.

The Mercy alumnae girls send heartfelt thanks to the Longwood girls for their congratulations and true sportsmanship.

THE HIKING CLUB

*We walk a mile,
We rest a while,
While twenty-three miles from home.*

Light of heart, gleaming with joy, and radiant with cheer are the girls of the Hiking club when setting out on their journey. Weather means nothing to them.

*Rain or hail,
Snow or sleet,
Mercy hikers are always on their feet!*

That's the club slogan, like it?

The outstanding hike of the season was the zero weather hike made by the Eskimos of the Senior club. Too cold to hike, you say? Ah! what a sad exclamation! How could one be cold with a crowd of girls who spread nothing but warmth and cheer from their kind hearts.

Singing as they tramped along, collecting wood and paper to build a bonfire, and enjoying the country air, the hikers showed the true spirit in which they enter into all activities. The fire having been lighted, no second invitation was necessary to gather the girls around it. Roasting marshmallows and singing favorite songs passed the time away until the stomachs of the hikers felt quite empty. After getting their lunch, they started back home. Tired? Yes. But still happy and cheerful.

The members of the Junior club have followed closely in the footsteps of the Senior organization, so closely that they even trod the same hiking ground. Their hike is a bright spot in the pages of their memory books, and another rock in their foundation for a pleasant, agreeable, and healthy road to success.

To Miss Anderson, our chaperon, we offer our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for her unselfish cooperation.

THE SKATING CLUB

*Come and trip it as you go
On the light fantastic toe.
Do not bow to greet the ice,
For as a skater, it isn't nice.*

So sing the skaters of Mercy High, for they've all had experience at one time or another. Every girl remembers her first experience with double runners, or perhaps she was rather sophisticated and skipped the primary trial, and made the grade with hockeys. Well anyhow, now that the worst is over, the fun begins.

The skaters were fortunate this year in having a pond just across the street from school. The City Fire Department flooded a prairie for the use of the neighborhood. And were we friendly neighbors! Opportunity had only to raise its hand to knock when we rushed out the door, skates on and all.

Fun?? Pleasure?? I should say so! Ki-yis, wala-walas, crack the whips, "faw down" and "go booms," and snow ball fights, all good wholesome fun. Only the time was too short, yet beggars can't be choosers! And so we sing as we go skating round—

*For we the jolly skaters free
Have lots of fun and mirth and glee,
But just one thing—ay! here's the rub!
When school is called for the skating club!*

THE SNOWBALL FROLIC

The Senior Snowball Frolic proved to be one of the high lights of Mercy's social affairs. Each year the senior class held a midyear dance, aside from the prom, the returns of which are used as a donation to the scholarship fund. This year it was held in the gymnasium on January 31 with Danny Demetry and his "Young Moderns" officiating. Although the weather was not very inviting, the dance was well attended; in fact, too well for those couples who crave plenty of room.

The gym was quite appropriately transformed into a palace of snow. The dancers were immensely pleased with the orchestra and had every reason to be so. The smartly dressed young couples dancing to the tune of dreamy waltzes or the faster numbers produced an effect as exhilarating as a lovely spring day.

Another remarkable feature was the presence of the alumnae. So great was the number of "old grads" it brought back the memory of Mercy's former dances, whose reputation is known far and wide.

The success of the dance was all due to the cooperation of the faculty, social committee, chaperones, and seniors, to the response of the boys of De La Salle, Mount Carmel, St. Rita and St. Leo, and in general to the good will of all present.

The committee consisted of the following girls: Eileen McCahey, Charlotte Hobin, Marion Dimond, Martha Heneghan, Marion Fritsch, Cecile Noone, Marie Regal, Marguerite Voigt, Marie McNally, Eleanor Nash, Florence Burns, Raphael Burns, Nathalie Ketcham, Helen Blandford, Florence Durkin, Virginia Gruner, Mary McGovern, Laverne Hynes, and Mary Kirby.

Argument of the Play

Hadassah, adopted daughter of Mordecai, an exiled Hebrew prince, is chosen by Ahasuerus, the pagan king of Persia, as his bride. To conceal her Jewish origin she assumes the name Esther. Vashti, the king's former fiancée, is made a slave. In revenge for this insult Vashti conspires with two of the royal chamberlains to stab the king, but the plan is thwarted by Mordecai, the Jew, who informs the king of the plot against his life. Haman, a scheming courtier, persuades Ahasuerus to issue an edict condemning all the Jews to death. Queen Esther invites the king and his attendants to a banquet so that she may have opportunity to plead for her people. In preparing the wine for the feast Vashti pours poison into the king's cup. Being warned before by Nicaso he forces the slave to drink the portion. She dies immediately. The king touched by Esther's plea spares the Jews, commands Haman to be hanged, and raises Mordecai to a high place in his court.

PREFACE

ONCE upon a time, the months of the year decided to hold a meeting to relate their several experiences and happy memories. The school months were the only ones who could attend. July and August were on their vacations and refused to be drawn away from a shady tree, babbling brook, and fishing line.

As the meeting progressed, Old Father Time suggested that each month tell what had happened at Mercy High school during its term. The plan was adopted and memories underwent a hurried and complete search.

SEPTEMBER

September, first of the school months, gave a long sigh and then said:

"How busy my days have been! The ninth day ushered in the first day of school. A happier crowd of girls I have never seen. I walked up and down the halls and peeped into the rooms. They were crowded, especially the freshie rooms. Confusion but not silence reigned supreme.

"On the following day the cafeteria was opened and the newcomers were given a sample of what it means to 'come and get it.' After about two hundred and fifty more days that year of balancing a tray, they will be able to keep even the jello from quivering.

"For a few days the school appeared to be State and Madison with everybody hurrying about and nobody going any place. Judging from the remarks and gossip, the girls must have been scattered all over the country for their vacations. But the worst part of it was that each girl wanted to talk about her experiences, so for a whole week, everybody talked and nobody listened.

"However, on the sixteenth, the Mass of the Holy Ghost was celebrated. It was an inspiring sight to see all those girls present in the auditorium, asking for help through the coming year. The school year was thereby formally begun.

"Almost half of the month was gone and it looked as though every one I saw was a freshman. Of course when the uniforms are donned the seniors will be able to uphold their dignity and not be mistaken for freshies.

"When the twentieth day strolled in, Father Conway gave a wonderful lecture on the 'Constitution.' It was our first lecture and a very interesting one, too.

"Then Mercy day! And to make it a day to be remembered, Nancy Rooney '30, Evelyn Grimes '28, and Helen O'Sullivan '31, entered Mercy Order at St. Xavier's.

"The following day, the blackboard outside the cafeteria announced that there were only 37 more weeks of school! How cheerful and consoling. Various juniors also began showing signs of vanity and expanded chests when the Hi Rays staff was appointed. The new staff was introduced at assembly by last year's staff on the twenty-seventh.

"September 30 ushered in the first of the gym classes. Miss Anderson took charge. The drug stores reported a wonderful business in liniments, rubbing alcohol and bandages."

OCTOBER

October, dressed in a Halloween costume, immediately jumped up and exclaimed:

"Sit down, it's my turn now! I'm going to a masquerade party tonight so I'll take my inventory in double quick time.

"On the first day, the girls were supposed to be in perfect uniforms. I say 'supposed' because, of course, the cleaners and dressmakers are so slow! The uniforms were supposed to be two inches below the knee. At first the girls were indignant but later they agreed that they were right in style.

"The Glee club began its 'do-re-me' again. The annual elimination process was in full swing on October 2.

"The next day, six sisters of St. Casimir, from St. Casimir academy, visited Mercy. They told the girls of the beautiful Lithuanian language. Mercy greatly enjoyed their visit.

"On the fourth, because it was first Friday, Mass was celebrated and Holy Communion distributed. In the afternoon, the first sodality meeting of the year was called.

"October 9 saw the first team practice. Numerous candidates appeared. It looks like a wonderful year for Mercy's team.

"A few days later, on the eleventh, to be exact, the long delayed senior assembly was given. Talks on religion dominated with 'good speech' running a close second. The girls resolved to hereafter 'speak no evil (slang), see no evil, and hear no evil (or slang)'.

"Columbus played a mean trick on the girls by allowing his holiday to fall on a Saturday. They swear vengeance.

"The alumnae card party was given on October 13 in Mercy's gym. The party was a wonderful success and turned out to be a real reunion of former graduates.

"October 14—a holiday. Nuff said.

"Since October 15, a whispering campaign had spread throughout the senior class. It was just a sign of the approaching senior election.

"Sure enough! On the fifteenth the election was held. After a few minutes of getting thoroughly acquainted, ballots were cast and resulted in an excellent choice. The class of 1930 had unfurled its banners.

"The weather man showed the mean side of his nature by sending down an early fall of snow on October 23. Jingle bells 'will ring so merrily' before long!

"The next day, Father John gave a lecture on the Blessed Virgin as an ideal model for young Catholic girls.

"Last, but as usual, not least, on the twenty-fifth day of October, the seniors introduced a new idea by giving the freshies a Halloween party. Black and orange hair ribbons and suckers with grinning faces were distributed. The party took on an enormous size, but when old timers, such as 'Farmer in the Dell,' were introduced, youthful jollity was in full swing."

NOVEMBER

November, late as usual, hurried in just then, with a turkey in one hand and an air rifle in the other. He was a very modern month; he even wore spats.

"Is it my turn? I had to kill this turkey or have pork sausage for my Thanksgiving dinner. My mind seems to be rather blank, but I'll try to recall my days as best I can. Let me see!

"The first few days were just plain, ordinary school days but I did notice that something was in the air. There seemed to be a charge of electricity floating around (or perhaps it was suppressed excitement) and I tried my hardest to discover the reason. I was finally enlightened by a poster on the bulletin board which advertised a football game. Something was going to happen.

"Right I was! On the third, Loyola played DePaul in a football game at the Chicago Stadium. The game was for the benefit of the Mercy Building Fund. It was such a nice day that over 45,000 appeared to witness the gridiron battle. Loyola came out of it the victor. Finances speak well for another victory—that of the Mercy Building Fund.

"Exams began on the fifth. Whenever I passed a Mercy girl in the halls or going to and from school, I noticed the unusual stack of books carried. That's just as sure a sign of exams as buds are a sign of spring.

"The eleventh was Armistice day and therefore a holiday at Mercy. Holidays had been scarce so far and the girls decided to take advantage of an excuse for resting.

"On the following day, the Mercian staff was appointed. It consisted chiefly of the girls who made up last year's Hi Rays staff. The girls are determined to make this year's Mercian even better than last year's. The new Hi Rays staff has vowed to put past editions to shame by actually filling up the columns with news. Easy said. Last year's staff can vouch for the fact that the Mercy students just love to read the news but are not so easily persuaded to write or report it.

"Report cards were again given out on November 14. One little dash after a teeny-weeny letter can surely cause plenty of grief. Of course, some lucky ones had reason to be proud of their reports.

"That completes the most interesting and exciting days of my term. The following were just as I said before, typical lazy days. Nothing noteworthy happened. Or maybe I was asleep. Thanksgiving, of course, with its well-filled program closed the month. The girls came back looking as though Thanksgiving meant not only a well-filled program, but also well-filled dinner tables. Thus ends my tale with the turkey."

One Hundred Seventy-nine

DECEMBER

December, wrapped in a heavy overcoat and covered with snow, stroked his long white beard, and took up the story:

"The girls started out my month very energetically. On the second they went on a hike. And oh, what a hike! 'Snow, snow, beautiful snow!' They really hiked from 90th and Western back to school. The thermometer registered a little above zero, but what was weather compared to a good time.

"The following day, as could be expected, found the hikers less enthusiastic and more achy. A few seniors even refused to go to any classes that were on the second or third floors. Age isn't the only thing that plays havoc with one's muscles.

"Three days later, the annual Pantry Shower for the Sisters was given. Dancing and other amusements formed a splendid entertainment and the lobby groaned with its load of goodies.

"On December 8, delegates from Mercy attended services at the Cathedral to commemorate the feast of St. Francis Xavier, patron of the Propagation of the Faith.

"The next day saw the assembly dedicated to Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception. A program was given by the art students in honor of Sister Mary Concepta's feast day. They explained, by means of slides and talks, the well-known pieces of art, and told of the lives of the painters.

"Believe it or not, during the following week, quite a few seniors were caught writing letters to Santa Claus. The freshies were begging their mothers to buy them a pair of nice long stockings so that Kris Kringle would leave more than his calling card.

"On the eighteenth snow fell again, and this time in real earnest. Most of the students were marooned on street corners waiting for cars. The attendance took a big drop. The storm lasted throughout the week, and school had to be dismissed on December 20 for the Christmas holidays. Santa needed a shovel this year.

"The following week, the students appeared again at school, but this time, they were loaded down with boxes and bags. The Christmas baskets had to be filled, snow or no snow. This custom is observed each year at Mercy and many a family has had a happier Christmas, thanks to the generosity of the girls.

"With the effects of the Christmas dinner worn off, the school team played the alumnae of 1929 on December 27. It was a rousing game, ending in Mercy's favor—35 to 14. The alumnae played their hardest but they just didn't want to see their Alma Mater's team defeated. The game, therefore, was the alumnae's and Santa's gift to Mercy."

JANUARY

January was very youthful, being, of course, the baby of the months. He was so eager to talk that he almost forced December to resume his seat. Then he began:

"Well, I will admit that I want to talk, but really, I've had such a busy time that I'm afraid I will forget some things I should remember.

"School was called again on January 6, with almost spring weather to greet the girls. They were not very anxious to return, but school must go on.

"Two days later, the senior teams had their tournament. Rooms 6 and 7 won their games but decided to postpone the final game until later.

"On the next day, another big snow storm came to please the snow lovers. But the trouble was that it only came for a visit. January 10 was a nice fair day and galoshes were once more discarded.

"The senior teams of Rooms 6 and 7 met again on January 6. Room 6 won the tournament, thus claiming the senior championship. On the same day, the juniors started their contest but were forced to wait until a future date for the finals.

"January 14, the Junior Glee club presented 'Toymaker,' the long delayed Christmas play.

"St. Michael's band played for the girls on January 17. After hearing this splendid entertainment, the girls began to look forward to the organization of Mercy's band.

"On the following Monday, January 20, it was announced that it was time for those quarterly bug-bears, the exams, to worry the already harrassed students again.

"The next day, and for many days following, the "ad" campaign for the Mercian was on. Posters were hung on the bulletin boards, and the girls were urged to renew their acquaintance of friends in business.

"The juniors finished their tournament on the succeeding day with Room 4 taking the junior laurels.

"Twenty-four hours later, the juniors met the seniors in the annual interclass game. The seniors, most naturally, won, but as it is the seniors' last year, they must be slightly pampered.

"And then, out of a clear sky, the freshies were seen wearing armbands on which were numerals. At first it was thought that the freshies were numbered because the teachers found it so hard to tell one from another, but the numbers really stood for the owner's room number.

"The twentieth and thirtieth were busy days for the seniors. They worked eagerly and steadily at decorating the gym for their class dance. The scenery suggested a winter atmosphere, and it was so realistic that quite a few girls were seen wearing fur coats while working.

"The next evening presented the Senior Snowball Frolic. The cool decorations were almost melted by the gay music and crowd. The dance was a huge success and a great credit to the class of '30."

One Hundred Eighty-three

FEBRUARY

February appeared to be a very bashful month. He hung back until he was almost forced to speak. (The cause of the shyness might have been due to the valentine he tried to hide behind his back.) Finally, after a few words of encouragement, he began:

"Almost all the seniors had had their pictures taken by the beginning of my term. On February 3, many of the girls had received the finished products. The results were, in most cases, delightful but then, the girls were at a loss how to explain the fact that 'good looking people very seldom take good pictures.'

"The team met St. Xavier's team in a practice game on the fourth. The score was 35 to 13 in favor of Mercy.

"On the next day the sophomores finished the tourney, begun February 3. Room 14 emerged victorious and assumed the soph championship.

"The seniors met the sophs on February 6. Again the seniors were victorious, beating one of the best organized teams in the school.

"February 10 was a blue Monday for no special reason. After all the games of the preceding week, the school seemed unusually quiet.

"But 'every cloud has its silver lining.' Lincoln, again displaying his famous kindness to 'slaves,' gave the girls a holiday to celebrate his birthday.

"Two days later brought the 'day of days'—Valentine day. It was just like the good old grammar school days to see the candy room offering valentines for sale. Many a girl gave and received them and many a cheek turned red when its owner was caught with samples of the flowery messages of 'kind regards.'

"Beginning with the week of February 17, hoarseness reigned gloriously among the seniors. It was the first positive indication of the progress of the senior play. Even voices must be sacrificed for the sake of Art.

"This week also brought the first signs of spring. Robins and sport shoes are fairly accurate heralds of spring at Mercy.

"The sophs team invaded St. Augustine's school and scored a decisive victory over its team on the twentieth. It was the first outside game for the school, although not played by the regular school team.

"February 21 was a red letter day at Mercy. The girls witnessed a debate between Loyola, Chicago, and Lincoln Memorial, Tennessee, on 'Naval Disarmament.' After the debate, the school team played Woodlawn-Loretto at Loretto. Mercy won 34 to 21.

"The freshies began their class tournament on the twenty-fourth. Rooms 18 and 23 came out of the tourney with flying colors.

"Mercy's team, this time, met Englewood Loretto on February 28. The game was exceedingly fast and an overtime period of five minutes resulted in a tie 13-13."

MARCH

Poor March had to be thawed before he could speak. He was covered with snow and sleet. But "it's always good weather when good fellows get together" so his tale began thus:

"The seniors introduced the beginning of my season by trying to assume a manly stride and a guttural voice. Coughdrops and atomizers were in common use among those who had male parts in the senior play.

"On the evening of March 4, the freshies finished their basketball tourney. A wonderful crowd appeared to cheer and to encourage the first year teams. Room 23's team were declared the freshman champs and were presented with a silver basketball. Rooms 18, 20 and 21, as runners-up received banners.

"With the fifth day, Lent began. Promises were readily made but the candy room and cafeteria were, oh, so tempting. But with it all, the girls made a wonderful start on this Lent.

"Visitation came over to 'play in Mercy's gym' on March 7, but were defeated 29 to 9 by the home team. Even though the game was one-sided, Vis' wonderful spirit offset the defeat.

"Almost a week had elapsed before anything else, worth mentioning, happened. The school seemed so quiet for these days that one would have thought that retreat had begun. But 'tis always peaceful before the storm.

"What happened on March 13 was just as good as a storm. Longwood met Mercy's team and defeated it 26 to 11! The defeat, so strange to Mercy, was not easy to take, but Mercy's team and girls showed a beautiful spirit of sportsmanship by taking it with a smile and heartily congratulating the victors. It's not always a victory when a team wins, but it always is when it can take a licking and still come back for more.

"The Mothers' auxiliary gave a card party and dance on the evening of the fourteenth. It was a great success and all enjoyed it immensely.

"March 17! That date has only to be mentioned and somebody will be seen doing the Irish Washerwoman or the Dublin Jig. And it is never welcomed any more cheerfully than at Mercy. The girls are not all Irish, of course, but a holiday is a holiday.

"The first performance of the senior class play, 'Under Eastern Skies,' was presented on March 22, for the grammar school children.

"On March 24, cast one gave the entertainment. The performance was splendid and the girls were congratulated on their interpretation.

"Owing to a snow storm, the play had to postponed. It was to have been given on the evenings of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth.

"Father Kienberger and Father McMahon bravely ploughed through about two feet of snow to pay the girls a visit on March 27. 'Where there's a will, there's a way.'

"The play was continued on March 30 and 31. Both performances were splendid and the girls received a wonderful ovation. Another feather in the cap of the class of 1930."

APRIL

April rose, and in a very serious voice, said, "I'm not going to say anything because the girls didn't have any school all during my term." "Why, I'm afraid you're wrong," said Father Time, "it was too early for vacation." Then all the other months joined in, claiming that there must be a mistake someplace. Finally, old Father Time gasped, and with eyes twinkling merrily, said, "Well, it looks as if we were caught this time. Don't you see that April is playing one of his famous April fool tricks on us?" What happened then is not for us to know but to guess. With his fun over, April related this account:

"On April fool's day, Mercy's alumnae and Longwood's alumnae played a game of basketball in Mercy's gym. Each team tried hard to play April fool jokes on the other by taking the ball and trying to throw it into the basket. Mercy's team succeeded in making the most baskets and won, 19 to 15. It was the first game ever played between the alumnae of two different schools here at Mercy.

"April 2 brought the announcement of the Milwaukee game. Immediately almost every girl began to plan how and where to gather the money for the trip. It was to be by bus instead of by train.

"Dame Rumor hinted on April 4 that exams were seen on the horizon. Books were dusted off and taken home for the last minute cramming.

"Sure enough! With the seventh came—EXAMS! They're easier to find than the measles and just as sure to appear. They made their quarterly debut on the tenth and eleventh.

"Mercy's alumnae played the school team on the evening of April 10. The poor alumnae were badly defeated but didn't seem to feel so down-hearted. After all, they're still Mercians, and we know they are grand players.

"APRIL 12!! The Milwaukee game!! At 8:30 a. m. that morning, three buses, carrying about one hundred and twenty girls, and eleven Sisters, left Mercy for Milwaukee. What happened on the trip would fill more books than the Congressional Record. On arriving, the Chicago girls were taken through the school and told by the Sisters there to make themselves at home. They certainly were made to feel at home. After dinner, the two teams met and played a game of basketball according to two-court rules. Mercy, Chicago, won, 34 to 18. The trip back home is left to your imagination. And so ended a perfect day.

"Father Weitzman S. J. gave the retreat for this year on April 14, 15, and 16. It was a beautiful retreat. The girls were sincere in their efforts to make it a success. It left a lasting impression on the students particularly those who will leave this year—the seniors.

"The Easter holidays broke into the school routine and gave the girls from April 17 to April 21 to eat the Easter eggs the bunny brought.

"From the twenty-first to the thirtieth, the days progressed so smoothly and rapidly that I will not try to take an account of them. Glee club practice, cooking goodies, sewing dainties, helped make full days."

MAY

When it came May's turn to talk, she had to be asked to stop singing the Spring song. Of course, the weather would make anybody happy but he was holding up the party. So with a deep sigh, he took up the thread (literally speaking):

"The seniors were received into the Federation at a banquet given on May 3. It was the annual Alumnæ banquet held at Mercy.

"On May 7, 8, and 10 the Glee club presented their play, 'The Belle of Bagdad,' which met with the usual success of the Glee club's plays.

"May 9 was the day on which the song festival of the Mercy parish schools was held. Each grammar school had a part in the entertainment.

"A MOVIE!! It was shown on May 15 and was the first of the year. The girls enjoyed the show and expressed the wish that the movies would become more frequent.

"The Mercy Glee club, together with De La Salle's band and other High School glee clubs, gave a program at the Coliseum on May 20. It was for the benefit of National Health Week.

"On the twenty-first, the South Chicago Branch of the Federation gave a banquet. This day marks the style revue also.

"The Senior Prom was given on the twenty-second at the Drake. It was an informal affair and another beautiful success for the seniors.

"On the evening of the twenty-seventh, the annual Physical Education program, otherwise known as the 'gym exhibit,' was presented. All the classes, not excepting the seniors, took part.

"The girls went on a hike on Ascension Thursday, May 29. Both hiking clubs went and a real crowd showed up this time. It was the last hike for the school year."

JUNE

Just then, June asked to finish the "inventory" by telling of his month. May said that he had finished his story so June began:

"I have only half a month to speak about because the school term closes in the middle of my days.

"The Junior-Senior hotel banquet was given on the third. Of course, the juniors treated the seniors so a good time was sure to be had.

"June 6 was Student day. Grammar school graduates (no boys allowed) came to visit the school. It was the one day when the rules and regulations are hidden away.

"Musical recitals are planned for the evenings of June 9 and 10. Honors and certificates are to be conferred.

"June 12 has been selected as seniors' Mothers' day. The seniors are inviting their mothers to a luncheon and entertainment.

"The senior commercial girls graduate on June 13. Look out, Business World, here come the latest in commercialites.

"And then, senior graduation on June 17. It is the day for which the girls have worked four long years and when it comes, it doesn't seem to be exactly welcome. But the years go on! And as I said before, 'once a Mercy girl, always a Mercy girl!'"

Dear Sussie,

you asked me to write a letter. I have so much to say I could take up a couple pages, but I'll just say a few words. I hope you have many successful years to follow with your "beauty and your art." Don't forget and call me sometime (Sagamaw 767 and also come over. I certainly hope you have many many more hours with Marty and hope they are as enjoyable as the night of the Senior Prom. I certainly wish I could write like you so that I could help you with your 18 essay questions. If you ever need an extra friend, I'll always be hand but don't forget the advice given you. "If you didn't pay so much attention to Evelyn Businger you would be better able to do your work." Never forget Sister Mary Patricia, Sussie, Marty, Snyder, Roy Mills, and think of us often, especially Sussie. Mary is getting very impatient and wants to see you so I hope you will be satisfied with a page and here's my wishes: and when his hair begins to
I wish you love Love Sussie I wish you a darling baby
I wish you joy & peace
I wish you a Darling baby & boy.
